Fifth Offense

Housebreaking is charged against fourteen-year-old boy.

Ray Dupin Pleads Not Guilty and Case Will Be Tried December 2.

HAS BEEN TO HOUSE OF REFUGE

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19.—Ray Dupin, a guileless looking fourteen-year-old boy, was brought into the Criminal Court this morning and arraigned upon the charge of housebreaking. The officers of the court were astonished at the extreme youth of the accused and Judge Caruth said that if a plea of guilty could be arranged he would have the child committed to an orphan asylum with which it appears the boy's friends had made some arrangement. Capt. James Hendricks explained to the court that this was Dupin's fifth offense of housebreaking and that he was sent to an orphan asylum by order of the court because he would surely contaminate all the other inmates.

Young Dupin made no denial, but merely listened with interest to the consideration of his case. He has already been to the House of Refuge more than once, according to Capt. Hendricks, but nothing seems to have had a good influence over him. Judge Caruth was averse to a formal trial of the boy for the charge against him, but the youngster pleaded not guilty and nothing remained but to set a date for his trial, which was fixed at December 2.

CHILD LABOR

Every now and then the south is troubled by northern newspapers to a rippling criticism of its toleration of child labor in cotton mills and other factory industries. The cause of these criticisms has been largely removed by the anti-child labor law enacted in the Carolina and Alabama. But still the middle-western railroads go on.

But this much can be said to reply to the unscrupulous critics—that whatever laws we enact in the south to prevent unwholesome child labor will be enforced. That is more, for instance, than can be said of the like laws in New Jersey, if the comments upon them by the usually accurate Philadelphia Press are to be accepted.

That newspaper charges that the legislature of New Jersey has left the authorities without the necessary funds to secure any sort of decent enforcement of the anti-child labor statutes and that these are violated almost wholesale by the perjury of parents certifying falsely to the ages of their children, when they wish to sacrifice to the milk mottos. The grand justice of the state refuse point blank to indict parents for this criminal offense and hence the law is a practical dead letter.

Under these circumstances we should think our northern friends would appreciate that modesty forbids them from smiting their eyes to this lawlessness in New Jersey, even though their altruistic consciences implore them to lambaste any southern state for not having any law on the subject. If we believed that to enact one in this state would lead to such contempt for it as is practiced in New Jersey we would resist the creation of so wide an invitation to human conspiracy and anarchy—Atlanta Constitution.

SEEDING WHEAT

(From the Ohio Farmer.)

Of all the crops, wheat is most carefully put in, and the most is trusted to luck; with the advent of improved machinery the carelessness seems to increase. This last season has furnished a striking illustration of this. Last fall was an exceedingly wet one, and seeding was deferred later than usual on that account. As a result much of the wheat was sown in such haste that little or no preparation was made. It has been our practice to give the soil a thorough culture as we would for any other crop. The old practice is followed by many of seeding the wheat in rough, cloddy soil on the theory that the action of the winter frosts will pulverize it enough.

The sooner the ground is plowed for wheat after harvest the better, for early plowing permits the soil to become fine, compact and thoroughly pulverized. Thus too rapid evaporation is checked and soil moisture is conserved, insuring a good start. Rough, cloddy ground cannot do this, but if the weather is dry, as it is in many instances, the young plants suffer for want of moisture just at a time they need it most.

The same necessity for culture exists where wheat is sown on corn ground, although many sow on corn stubble without any preparation at all. This practice has become much more general since the introduction of the disk drill. Those who are inclined to the disk cult for the wheat with a solid side that protects the young plants in winter and forms a more compact bed for the seed when the soil is cultivated. This sort of talk will do for agents, but not for farmers.

Nothing so quickly relieves tired eyes as bathing them in hot water.

Two or three drops of glycerine given to a baby suffering from stomach ache will ease the pain, if wind is the cause.

Saturate a piece of pumice stone with perfume and put it in drawers or boxes. If you wish a delicate odor of your favorite perfume.

It is said that white wash spots can be removed instantly by washing with strong vinegar.

Never allow yourself to eat when exhausted, physically or mentally. Slip either hot water or hot milk into the refrigerator.

A few drops of glycerine taken into the mouth and swallowed slowly will often soothe an irritable cough by moistening the dryness of the throat.

To relieve heartburn, or the "acid" feeling of the dyspeptic, lay a cloth, wrung out of hot water, on the stomach, covering it closely with a dry flannel, repeating as the cloth cools.

When worn out with a day's counting, sponge the face and neck with water as hot as can be borne; sponge the temples, throat, behind the ears and the back of the neck, and, if possible, take a nap of ten or more minutes.

STATE NEWS

Prosecuting Attorney Jesse M. Gilbert died suddenly at Paducah.

J. T. Haskell, a well-known drummer, died suddenly of apoplexy in the residence of the Palmer House at Paducah.

There was a killing frost in Warren county.

Henry S. Walz was killed by a train at Burgin.

Robert Anderson, of Lewisburg, Logan county, is dead from a blow on the head inflicted by some unknown person.

A little child of Charles M. Edwards, Jr., choked to death at Hopkinsville as the result of a fishbone lodging in its throat.

The case against Conrad Hefendorn, charged with the murder of Collins Sloan, went over the December 1st.

Albert Butten, well-known grocer, Louisville, died suddenly on the street at Preston and Market streets. Apoplexy was the cause.

The new Masonic Temple at Louisville was dedicated the 20th with impressive ceremonies.

Capt. W. E. Bell, a prominent citizen of Lawrenceburg, a Confederate veteran and Revenue official, died last week.

Thos. Metcalf, one of the wealthiest farmers of Boyle county, has sold his entire possessions, and will join Alexander Dowie's hosts at Zion City.

All five wills of Gen. Cash, Ky. deceased, were rejected by the County Judge of Madison county for probate on the ground that their maker had not been in fit condition for the past two years to make a will.

Col. Belknap certainly has a very poor opinion of the grand old Commonwealth. In a recent speech he said, "with us now lies the responsibility of making this State a place for our sons and daughters to live." When Col. Belknap voted for the negro Abolition for a State office in opposition to a gallant and worthy Confederate soldier he was not aware of the desire to improve Kentucky as a place of residence.

Smash-Up In Virginia

Passenger Train and Mixed Freight Collide on the Southern.

FOUR PERSONS ARE KILLED

Washington, Oct. 19.—A telegram was received at the headquarters of the Southern Railway, in this city, today, stating that a passenger train and a mixed train collided at Keysville, Va., at 6:15 o'clock this morning. Conductor Atwell, Flagman Dillou and Fireman Daniel Pincham were killed, as was also one railway mail clerk. One colored passenger suffered a broken arm and was badly cut about the face. C. D. Farmer, engineer of the passenger train, had his ankle broken and was badly injured. Fireman Jackson, of the same train, was severely cut about the head. Baggage-master Tyler, of the mixed train, had a shoulder dislocated. Engineer J. D. Tyler, who was a passenger on the mixed train, was severely injured. The telegram stated that physicians had been sent to the scene of the wreck.

BIRTHDAYS IN JAPAN

With the exception of the emperor there are no individual birthdays in Japan. The people, however, make up for this by having a sort of general birthday for everybody in common, which is celebrated with great rejoicing.

There are two of these general holidays, one for each sex. The male birthday, which is known as the "celebration of the boys," occurs on the third day of the third month and the fifth day of the fifth month. These days are generally put aside and boys and girls respectively come presents according to their station.

The birthday of the emperor, or Ten-o, as he is more properly styled, is also a general holiday for the Japanese everywhere. The houses are all decorated with flags, and in the evening the streets are gay with the lights of innumerable colored lanterns. In the morning the highest authorities go to the palace and offer their congratulations in person and the lower degrees offer them vicariously to their superiors. All the Japanese, whether common or noble, congratulate their monarch on having added another year to his age.

TEMPTING RATE BY MARRYING

"I see," said the amateur philologist, "that Senator Platt is going to marry a lady who has twice been a widow. Mr. Platt is tempting fate. The lady is almost sure to be a widow again. You will say this is an easy prediction to make because the Senator is nearly twice as old as the bride-to-be. But I would say that this chance to survive her was very poor even if he was as young as she is. I have made a study of this question, and I find that in about nineteen cases out of twenty a man who marries a widow leaves her a widow again—that is, if he was not a widower himself. It works the same the other way, too. When a widower marries a woman who has not been married before he is almost sure to become a widower again. Mr. Platt is a widower, but he has married only one wife; while the lady has been twice bereaved; therefore her chance is twice as good as his. I don't attempt to account for this. But if you will watch you will find that the law which I have described works out to the same end almost invariably."

FAITH OF THE SITTING HERE

Perhaps in a way there is nothing more heroic than a female fowl trying to hatch something from nothing. The old gray goose will sit for months on a stone, after being robbed of her eggs, vainly hoping to induce a brood of goslings from the impavement said.

And the hen is equally persistent and plecty. She will hover for weeks and weeks over a deserted knob looking gladly forward to the day she will bring forth the reform a fluffy family. If men had the faith of an ordinary mother hen they could do miracles. No Christian martyr ever showed more persistence and blind faith than "Old Spee," when the fever of spring sets in working in her blood and the material instinct takes a firm hold of her entire being. Does any other creature exhibit such blind faith and trust and hope under discouraging circumstances? In ancient times mighty things were performed by faith and belief, but there is not in the whole world, ancient or modern, a more sublime example of this quality than that given by the sitting hen. The blind man—vision and only after a night at fasting—may hurt her from the feed box of one of the broods; the boss may "dim the setting bars, anyway," but she will creep back after a little of blustering and jawing and shaking out her feathers, nestle down among the corn cobs, hoping doubtless thereby to hatch out a field of yellow beans. God of our fathers, if we had the divine faith of the brooding setting hen, we would go forth healing the sick and halt, and giving the blind back their sight.

VOTERS AT WORK

With the election less than one week off the Democrats are more confident of victory than ever before in the history of the party. The organization is superb and not a section of the State and county or precinct has been overlooked and reports from everywhere indicate an increase in the Democratic vote. A glimpse at the State Campaign Headquarters in Louisville makes it apparent at once the amount of work that is being done there. Nearly forty stenographers are working night and day and a force of men is kept engaged constantly in sending out campaign literature and seeing to the mailing of thousands of letters every day. Various committees are also at work at headquarters. Some have to do with organization, others with the assignment of speakers and others with the answering of mail. In fact the Democrats have done more work in this campaign than any previous political contest in the State. Much of the credit of the splendid organization which has been made is due to "the boys in the trenches" and the men who make up the organization in the county precincts. In this campaign they have been faithful and active and should not lose their work until the polls close on election day.

Much credit is also given to the State Press which has done more work for the Democratic party before. The Democratic papers have used their columns to secure success and the good which they have accomplished can not be measured or estimated.

Every Democrat in the state who has sided in the slightest in the work of organization should feel that some of the credit is due him and that he has contributed in a large measure towards the success of his party.

The Democrats have met and answered all the arguments of the Republicans while the Republicans have been unable to answer the charges which have been made against them.

When the voice of the entire people has been heard the members of the Committee are confident that it will give a majority for Beckham and the entire State ticket of not less than 25,000.

HOWARD, POWERS AND JETT

Jim Howard, Cash Powers and Onis Jett occupy the same ward in the jail at Louisville. An amusing incident occurred when they were put in their new quarters. Jailor Pfanz was in the room explaining to Powers what arrangements were being made. Curs Jett was an interested listener. When Howard was brought in he joined the group. Jett looked up Howard for a moment and said: "Is this Jim Howard?"

"I beg your pardon. I thought you gentlemen knew each other," said Deputy Boyman.

"No," said Howard, shaking hands. "I met Mr. Jett, though he was pointed out to me once in Floyd county, I think."

"Well, I wish I'd never been out of Floyd county," laughed Jett. "I've got in bad in several other places I've seen in."

CHEAP LANDS

For Homeseekers' and Colonies.

The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southwest Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Homeseekers. Mild climate, good water, cheap building material, abundance of fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $2.50 an acre, prairie land at $4 and $5 per acre up, bottom land at $4 and $5 per acre up, improved or partly cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre. Some fine propositions for colonies—tracts of 2,000 to 8,000 acres at $10 to $15 per acre—big money in this for a good organizer. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of East Texas at $10 to $20 per acre up. Write us for information about cheap rates, excursion rates, also literature descriptive of this great country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rest you pay every year.

THE SPEAKING.

This (Tuesday) afternoon Col. Morris B. Belknap, Republican candidate for Governor, will address the citizens of Adair county.

As we go to press people from all parts of the county are entering Columbia and the indications are that a large crowd will hear the speaker.

Several Republicans of the town have been active for several weeks, organizing clubs, and it is said these organizations will march into town in a body.

Col. Belknap has been making one speech all over the State, and we take it that it will be rehearsed here today.

We understand that a large crowd greeted Mr. Belknap at Jamestown Monday.

From this place he goes to Liberty and in a few days will end the canvass.

Mr. Belknap is not an experienced speaker, but the Republicans over the State seem to be satisfied with his efforts and the Democrats are making no complaint.

His friends here gave him a cordial welcome and an enthusiastic hearing. A few more days and the fever will be over.

The Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky, held a very interesting session in Louisville last week.

It was perhaps the largest delegation seen in the city for years, and much important business was transacted.

The Masons, in the new temple, was dedicated with imposing ceremonies, all the different branches of Masonry marching to the temple in a body.

Tuesday afternoon the children of the Home gave a public entertainment which delighted the fraternal, and was highly appreciated by the many visitors.

The Masonic lodge in Louisville is a building which belongs exclusively to the Masons of Kentucky. It is a magnificent structure and was erected at an enormous expense.

The committee in charge rents the auditorium for theatrical purposes and the gentleman who has it leased for this year is advertising at $1000 per week.

Don't fail to see Walker's line of ready made skirts. They are beautiful, they are cheap and up to date.

Next Monday will be county court and the next day will be the election. A very large crowd is expected in town on Monday. Rollin' Hutt will speak at the court-house, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m.

I have a large and well assorted stock of outing in all colors, some heavy ones at 50c per yard.

W. L. Walker.

Gov. Hindman, who has been making Republican speeches over the State will return here this week. He recently stated in Columbia that Mr. Belknap had a walk-over in the race for Governor. It will be known next Tuesday night what kind of a prophet he is. The State is looking decidedly Beckhamish to us.

Monarch Coffee.

Rev. S. A. McKay, who is on the Campbellsville Circuit, has rented a house and will live in Campbellsville. We understand his residence is on the Lebanon pike, a desirable portion of the city.

The dwelling is two story and an ell, and was built three years ago. Possession will be given immediately after the election.

The corporation meeting of the Christian Church, held at Riley last Friday, Saturday and Sunday was a very interesting gathering.

There were nine preachers present, among the number Mr. F. Harmon, a native of Adair county, but now a resident of Dallas, Texas. The reports of the various ministers were very satisfactory and several logical sermons were delivered.

People from this section of Kentucky are proud in their praise of Mr. George Schenck, who is the assistant manager of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Louisville. A large majority of the citizens of Adair, Taylor and Green counties, who visit the city stop at this popular resort.

Mr. Schenck has become personally acquainted with the trade from this locality, and takes great pleasure in seeing that the Green river friends are comfortably situated when registered at the Fifth Avenue.

CINCY FORK
The Braxton Massie farm again changed hands last Tuesday, this time being bought by J. T. Smith from Crit Henson for $5,500.
The Marriage of Mr. C. C. Christie to Miss Rosa Fess, of Watson, Wednesday 21st. will be no surprise to his many friends in this neighborhood, his new residence on the Christie farm bearing completion being sufficient evidence of his intention. Mr. Christie is highly esteemed by the people of the community in which he lives and the young lady whom he has chosen for a companion will be gladly received by his friends here.

Hausack & Hartfield, thrasher men, finished up the season's work last Thursday by threshing the millet crop of 51 bushels for T. S. Scott.
John Green Sublett, one of Cane Valley's best young men, was visiting in this community last week.
The election which is close at hand is causing very little excitement.

FROM THE COMMONER.
Lake Superior copper had so much water in it that the stock was badly corroded.
The Boers finally quit but Mr. Kipling still feels that he has a call to keep it up.

Mr. Hanna's "let well enough alone" cry is rapidly degenerating into a "let me a lone" wall.
Mr. Roosevelt's election is ended but the trusts' inning is still on in full force and effect.

In view of all the circumstances Mr. Hanna appears to be wise in insisting there is nothing to talk about.

John Gates shows gratifying signs of turning State's evidence in the case of the people vs. Wall Street.

Mr. Hanna may be physically ailing, but there is plenty of evidence that his ill temper is in perfect working order.

Every time Secretary Payne feels the need of a new laugh he presents Mr. Beavers with another indictment.
There is every indication that Mr. Beavers will soon come to look upon the indictment as a new kind of breakfast food.

The trouble with republican tariff revision is that the Republicans will not do it after election and dare not do it before election.

The senior Senator from Ohio is asking like a man who wants to make sure this time that he will not have to dodge the officers of the law.

The indications are that we will soon have a new cabinet officer, that of Secretary of official explanations. Of course Mr. Loeb will be the first incumbent.

A few years ago a flurry in Wall Street was called a "democratic panic." Today the Republican organs refer to it as being merely a "period of liquidation."

The declaration that John Jacob Astor owns the most costly ring in the United States is calculated to make Messrs. Quay and Hanna wink simultaneously.

Some day it will dawn upon the American jockey that the only way he can participate in the racing game in England is always let the English mount win.

BRAIN LEAKS.
Courtney is the oil that makes the wheels of business run smoothly.
People who believe in dreams usually have little faith in themselves.

The man who zealously guards his liberty is in no great danger of losing it.
Some people never do anything in church circles until they see an opportunity to kick up a fuss.

If we could only do our own work as easily as we think we could do another's, what a happy life this would be.
St.icking of great inventors, why not erect a monument to the memory of the woman who invented tomato sauce?

It is a wise mother who makes her son's while while he is seeking the rainbow, but it is a wiser mother who lets the boy remain silent. What's a few rainbows for the side of a boy's good will?

A toothpick trust has been organized. The public will chew on it while with the eye teeth before buying stock.

Confessions Of A Friend.
Rev. John S. Cox, of Waco, Ark. writes: "For 15 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, and got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that held me in grasp for twelve years!"
If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomachic disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by All Druggists. Only 50c.

Walter Jackson, the convicted murderer of a six-year-old boy at Hamilton, Mont., was lynched by a mob.

End of a Bitter Fight.
"Two physicians had a long stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung writes J. F. Hughes, of Du Pont, Ga. 'and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely gained my health.' It cures all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The dead-letter office has its share in the increased business of this period of prosperity. From the letters which were opened during the last year nearly fifty thousand dollars rolled out, beside valuable commercial paper and two hundred thousand photographs. So far as possible everything was returned to its owner.—Youth's Companion.

Upset All Predictions.
J. F. Hughes was a candidate for county treasurer at Du Pont, Ga., but it was predicted that he could not live six months. He was afflicted with a running abscess on his lung and suffered for three years; his life trembled in the balance when he heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. He tried it and was finally cured in six months. It is a good deal in criminal trials.

A Love Letter.
Would you interest me if you were looking for a guaranteed safe for stores, business or piles. Otto Dodd, of Ponder, Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Arnica salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth. 25c at All Drug Stores."
